THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of six persons as members of the Boards of Visitors to the Service Academies, for terms expiring December 30, 1978. They are:

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Military Academy

Helen N. Wilkins, of Wayne, New Jersey, President of Servo-Tek Products Company, Hawthorne, New Jersey. She succeeds Major Leif J. Sverdrup whose term has expired and has died.

Major General George Olmsted of Arlington, Virginia, United States Army Reserve, retired. This is a reappointment.

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Naval Academy

Lieutenant General Victor H. Krulak, of San Diego, California, United States Marine Corps, retired. This is a reappointment.

John A. Love, of Denver, Colorado, President and Chief Executive Officer of Ideal Basic Industries, Inc. He succeeds Admiral Harry D. Felt whose term has expired.

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Air Force Academy

Robert R. Herring, of Houston, Texas, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Houston Natural Gas Corporation. He succeeds Robert F. McDermott whose term has expired.

Dorothy W. Nelson, of Pasadena, California, Dean and Professor of Law, University of Southern California Law Center. She succeeds Churchill T. Williams whose term has expired.

The purpose of the Board is to inquire into the morale and discipline, the curriculum, instruction, physical equipment, fiscal affairs, academic methods, and any other matters relating to the academies which they choose to consider. All three boards consist of six members serving terms of three years.
