

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUGUST 6, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Margaret W. Kahliff of Elyria, Ohio, to be a Member of the Board of Directors of the Export-Import Bank of the United States. She succeeds Mitchell Kobelinski, who has resigned. Mrs. Kahliff is presently Chief Executive Officer of Majestic Molding Company of Elyria.

She previously was associated with Servomation Cleveland, an automated food service company which she founded. She was the company's chief executive officer and a group president for eleven years.

Mrs. Kahliff is now serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Cleveland Growth Association, and is a member of the Cleveland Business and Marketing Executives Board of Directors.

She was born July 11, 1916, in Charleston, Arkansas. She was married to the late William T. Kahliff of Elyria.
