

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Vail, Colorado)

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

ANSWERS TO UNANSWERED QUESTIONS FROM THIS MORNING'S BRIEFING

- Q. Has the PFC paid AMTRAK for the whistle-stop train. Strauss claims they have not.
- A. As Robert Moot, the PFC Treasurer, said today, the bill for the whistle-stop train tour was paid by check number 612 in the amount of $14,223 on June 25. The check was made out to the National Rail Corporation, the firm from which the train was rented.
- Q. There are approximately 41,000 U.S. troops in Korea now. Will they remain there indefinitely?
- A. There are no current plans to change the troop level in Korea.
- Q. Has it been decided whether the President will take the FEC campaign money?
- A. Yes, he will take FEC campaign money.
- Q. What is the possibility of the press meeting with the President for a few questions?
- A. The President's schedule for the remainder of the week has not yet been finalized.

#