

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Vail, Colorado)

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

On Saturday, August 28th, the President is expected to spend a good deal of his time in the Bass residence on staff work. In addition, to meetings with his staff, the President will go over his paper work, and will work on the speech he will deliver Sunday in Yellowstone Park.

There are no plans for golf.

The advance text of the President's remarks will be available in the Press Filing Center, Mountain Haus, at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, embargoed for release until 1:00 p.m., M.D.T., Sunday, August 29. We also hope to have the bible for the trip available at 10:00 a.m. Saturday. If there are announcements or releases, they will be posted at 10:00 a.m., but none is expected.

Other than the releases, there is a news lid at the Press Office for Friday night and Saturday. The Press Office will be closed Friday night and Saturday, but Ron Nessen, John Carlson, Bill Roberts and Thym Smith can be reached through the Mountain Haus switchboard.

#