Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

As you recall, the President met with, Jeno F. Paulucci, the National Chairman of the Italian American Foundation last Thursday, September 2.

Mr. Paulucci will be leaving for Italy today. The President has asked Mr. Paulucci to make an assessment of the Italian earthquake relief program and determine the utilization of the U. S. relief efforts and any remaining contribution the U. S. might make.

In addition, the President will be interested in any views he develops generally during his visit to Italy.

Mr. Paulucci will report to the President on his return.
