

SEPTEMBER 10, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of two persons as Representatives of the United States to participate, as national correspondents, in the United Nations Program for the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders for terms expiring December 31, 1980. They are:

David A. Schulte, Jr., of New York, New York, currently a member of New York City's Board of Correction.

Paul R. Welch, of Normal, Illinois, currently State's Attorney of McLean County, Illinois.

The functions of the appointees are to inform the Secretary General on current developments in the prevention of crime and treatment of offenders. The range of information includes matters relating to legislation, public and private agency programs; trends in the incidence of crime; results of experimental and demonstration projects; and other related matters. In addition, the correspondents assist the Secretariat in the collection of data and information required for international surveys and studies in the field.
