

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 13, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate ten persons to be Representatives and Alternate Representatives to the 31st Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations. Ambassador William Scranton will head the Delegation. The Representatives are:

William W. Scranton, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, United States Representative of the United States to the United Nations, New York, New York.

W. Tapley Bennett, Jr., of Griffin, Georgia, Deputy Representatives of the United States to the United Nations, New York, New York.

George McGovern, United States Senator from the State of South Dakota.

Howard H. Baker, Jr., United States Senator from the State of Tennessee.

Reverend Robert P. Hupp, of Boys Town, Nebraska, Director of Boys Town.

The Alternate Representatives are:

Albert W. Sherer, Jr., of Chicago, Illinois, Deputy Representative of the United States to the Security Council of the United Nations.

Jacob M. Myerson, of Union, South Carolina, Representative of the United States on the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

Nancy V. Rawls, of Brookhaven, Georgia, Alternate Representative of the United States for Special Political Affairs in the United Nations.

Stephen Hess, of the District of Columbia, Senior Fellow, Governmental Studies, Brookings Institute.

Ersa Hines Poston, of Loudonville, New York, Civil Service Commission of New York.

The 31st Session of the General Assembly is scheduled to be held in New York from September 21 through December 21, 1976.

#