

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 22, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of two persons as members of the National Advisory Committee for Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention for terms expiring March 18, 1980. They are:

Harold Peter Goldfield, of Arlington, Virginia, Law Clerk, Office of the Counsel to the President, The White House. He succeeds Joan Myklebust, whose term has expired.

Marion W. Mattingly, of Bethesda, Maryland, homemaker and active civic leader. She succeeds A. V. Eric McFadden, whose term has expired.

The Committee was established by Public Law 93-415 of September 7, 1974, to make recommendations to the Administrator of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration at least annually with respect to planning, policy, priorities, operations, and management of all Federal juvenile delinquency programs. The Advisory Committee meets at the call of the Chairman, but not less than four times a year.

The Committee consists of the Attorney General, Secretary of HEW, Secretary of HUD, Assistant Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention and the Deputy Assistant Administrator of the Institute for Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, or their respective designees and 21 members appointed by the President.
