

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 1, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate six persons to be members of the Board of Regents of the National Library of Medicine. They are:

For Terms Expiring on August 3, 1980

Clara M. Ambrus, of Buffalo, New York, Principal Cancer Research Scientist, Roswell Park Memorial Institute; Associate Research Professor of Pediatrics, State University of New York, Buffalo, New York. She succeeds Ethel Weinberg whose term has expired.

John A. Hill, of Norfolk, Connecticut, Chairman of the Board, Hospital Corporation of America, Nashville, Tennessee. He succeeds William Hubbard, Jr., whose term has expired.

For Terms Expiring on August 3, 1979

Neva Martin Abelson, of the District of Columbia, Adjunct Professor of Pathology, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Washington, D. C. vice Susan Crawford, term expired.

Charles Huggins, of Chicago, Illinois, Professor of Surgery at the University of Chicago. He succeeds Bernice Hetzner whose term has expired.

For Terms Expiring on August 3, 1978

Julio E. Figueroa, of New Orleans, Louisiana, Director, Chronic Dialysis and Renal Transplant Program, Ochsner Clinic, New Orleans, Louisiana. He succeeds John McGovern whose term has expired.

Francis X. Scannell, of Lansing, Michigan, State Librarian of Michigan. She succeeds J. Stanley Marshall whose term has expired.

The National Library of Medicine serves as the Nation's chief medical information source. The NLM is authorized to provide medical library services and on-line bibliographic searching capabilities.

#