

OCTOBER 6, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(San Francisco, California)

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

At 9:45 pm Tuesday, the President went for a walk around the Presidio grounds, to a point overlooking San Francisco Bay. He returned to the Sutro residence about 10:15 pm. He was accompanied on the walk by Aides Dr. William Lukash, Robert Barrett, and Terry O'Donnell.

The President was up at 6:00 am, Wednesday, and after breakfast, worked for an hour and a half studying his daily intelligence briefing papers, reviewing the News Summary, and reading papers, before beginning the meetings scheduled for Wednesday morning.
