Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today appointed Stanley N. Katz, of Chicago, Illinois, as a member of the Permanent Committee for the Oliver Wendell Holmes Devise for a term of eight years. He succeeds Alfred H. Kelly who died on February 4, 1976.

The Committee was established by Public Law 84-246, August 5, 1955, to administer the Oliver Wendell Holmes Devise Fund, which is used for the preparation of a history of the Supreme Court of the United States and the presentation of a series of Oliver Wendell Holmes lectures.
