The president's return from golf was uneventful.

We learned however that a young man was arrested this morning with a handgun, a loaded 38 revolver, on the dashboard of his truck which was in the line of traffic pulled over for the presidential motorcade.

The information is at the Indio Sheriff's substation.

But a spokesman there identified him as Wayne Shields, 21, of Indiana Springs. Authorities told them he was carrying the loaded gun to plink and shoot with.

He was taken to the Indio jail and charged with possession of a loaded weapon in a public place, and possession of a billy club found under the truck seat.

An SS agent spotted the gun on the dashboard, the spokesman said.
