

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOVEMBER 19, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of five persons as members of the National Advisory Council on Adult Education for terms expiring July 10, 1979. They are:

Joan E. Kenney, of Las Vegas, Nevada, Member, Board of Education, Carson City, Nevada. She succeeds Lois E. Marshall whose term has expired.

Gertrude Beckwith Calden, of Santa Barbara, California, Vice President, Fund for Santa Barbara City College, Santa Barbara, California. This is a reappointment.

Lane Murray, of Huntsville, Texas, Superintendent, Windham School, Huntsville, Texas. She succeeds Brent H. Gubler, whose term has expired.

John K. Wu, of Ludlow, Vermont, Executive Director, Vermont Republican State Committee. He succeeds Charles P. Puksta whose term has expired.

Betty J. Mage, of Vancouver, Washington, Active Member of state and national educational organizations. She succeeds William R. Langner whose term has expired.

The Council advises the Commission of Education in the preparation of general regulations and with respect to policy matters arising in the administration of adult education, including policies and procedures governing the approval of State plans and policies to eliminate duplication, and to effectuate the coordination of programs offering adult education activities and services.
