

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of five persons as members of the National Advisory Council on Extension and Continuing Education. They are:

For the remainder of the term expiring June 30, 1978

John L. Blackburn, of Englewood, Colorado, Vice Chancellor for University Resources, University of Denver, Denver, Colorado. He succeeds Thomas Aranda, Jr., who has resigned.

For terms expiring June 30, 1979

Nancy M. Boykin, of Detroit, Michigan, Director, Continuing Education for Girls, Division of Pupil Services, Detroit Public Schools, Detroit, Michigan. This is a reappointment.

John B. Ervin, of University City, Missouri, Dean of Continuing Education, Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri. He succeeds Newton Cattell, whose term has expired.

Lee R. Kolmer, of Ames, Iowa, Dean of College of Agriculture, Iowa State University. He succeeds Evelyn Silas, whose term has expired.

Rosalind K. Loring, of Los Angeles, California, Dean of the College of Continuing Education, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California. She succeeds S.I. Hayakawa whose term has expired.

The Council was established by Public Law 89-329 of November 8, 1965 and its membership consists of 12 members appointed by the President and one representative from each of the following: Departments of Agriculture, Commerce, Defense, Labor, Interior, State, Housing and Urban Development, Justice, and the Small Business Administration.

The Council advises the Commissioner of Education on the preparation of general regulations and policies to eliminate duplication of continuing education programs.
