Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The Vice President has invited the members of the White House Press Corps traveling to New York to a buffet dinner this evening at the Tarrytown Hilton. The time of the dinner, and the room where it will be held will be posted at the Hotel.

On Sunday, November 21, the Vice President has invited the press to a brunch at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club, near the Rockefeller estate at Pocantico Hills. Bus transportation will be provided from the Union Church in Pocantico Hills and from the Tarrytown Hilton to the Country Club.

Following the 12:30 p.m. dedication ceremony at the Rockefeller estate the Vice President's Deputy Press Secretary, John Mulliken, will brief the press at the Country Club on the ceremony. Briefing time is expected to be about 1:30 p.m. There will be a few phones available at the Country Club, but the full filing facilities will be at the Tarrytown Hilton.
