

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOVEMBER 23, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

THE WHITE HOUSE

TEXT OF A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT
TO PRESIDENT GISCARD d'ESTAING

In behalf of the American people I extend my deepest sympathy to you and to the people of France on the passing of Andre Malraux.

France has lost one of her finest sons. Modern civilization has lost a dynamic and creative spirit. The deep concern of Andre Malraux for his fellow man, his contributions to shaping a better world and his creativity as a philosopher, novelist and historian will endure as a lasting memorial.

#

#

#