NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President plans to spend some time at Camp David with his budget advisors both Friday and Saturday.

On Friday, the President plans morning and afternoon sessions of approximately two hours each. Friday morning, the budget review will cover the Commerce Department, the Small Business Administration, the Civil Service Commission and various small non-regulatory agencies.

Friday afternoon, the budget review will include the Energy Research and Development Administration, and other energy research and development areas.

Saturday morning, the budget area covered will include the Department of Transportation and several regulatory agencies.
