NOTICE TO THE PRESS

To clarify some of Mr. Nessen's answers this morning concerning President Ford's home in Alexandria:

In 1974, after Gerald Ford become Vice President, Mr. Ford and the General Services Administration (at the request of the Secret Service) spent funds for needed security facilities and improvements. These expenditures were announced in detail at the time.

Further information on Government expenditures at the Ford home can be obtained from Jack Warner at 634-5708.
