

DECEMBER 1, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of Caspar W. Weinberger, of San Francisco, California, as a member of the President's Committee on Science and Technology. This is a new position created by Public Law 94-282 of May 11, 1976.

Mr. Weinberger has been Vice President and General Counsel of the Bechtel Corporation in San Francisco, California since 1975. He served as Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare from 1973 to 1975 after having served as Director of the Office of Management and Budget during 1972-73 and as Counsellor to the President in 1973.

The membership of the Committee will consist of the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy and not less than eight nor more than fourteen other members.
