Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of H. James Field, Jr., of Providence, Rhode Island, as a member of the Board of Governors of the United Service Organizations, Inc., for a term expiring in 1979. He will succeed Waller Taylor II, whose term has expired. Mr. Field was a Staff Assistant at the White House during 1976.

The Board of Governors is a voluntary civilian agency responsible to the President of the United States and the Secretary of Defense, through which may serve the religious, spiritual, social, welfare and educational needs of the men and women in the armed forces overseas.
