Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of three persons as members of the National Armed Forces Museum Advisory Board of the Smithsonian Institution. They are:

William I. Greener, Jr., of Springfield, Virginia, Consultant to the President of the United States, Washington, D. C. He succeeds Alexander Butterfield, whose term has expired.

William H. Perkins, Jr., of Riverside, Illinois, Legislative Representative, CNA Financial Corporation, Chicago, Illinois. This is a reappointment.

James M. Stone, Sr., of Brigham City, Utah, Group Vice President, Government Systems, Thiokol Corporation, Ogden, Utah. He succeeds Leo J. Dulacki, whose term has expired.

The Board advises and assists the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution on matters concerned with portraying the historical contributions which the Armed Forces of the United States have made to American society and culture.
