

January 14, 1977

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of two persons as members of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission for the following terms:

David Hicks, of New York, Assistant to the President and Lecturer in the Humanities, Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor for a term expiring December 26, 1977.

George C. Wortley III, of New York, Vice President, Manlius Publishing Corporation and Publisher of the Eagle Bulletin, Suburban Life and Cazenovia Republican, Fayetteville, New York, for a term expiring December 26, 1979.

#