

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 17, 1977

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of seven persons as members of the National Advisory Council on Vocational Education. They are:

Edith Green, of Portland, Oregon, Education Consultant, Portland, Oregon. She succeeds Frank Cannizzaro, whose term has expired.

Nola F. Haerle, Homemaker, Moraga, California. She succeeds Margo Thornley, whose term has expired.

Caroline E. Hughes, of Cushing, Oklahoma. This is a reappointment.

Esther Helene Levens, of Prairie Village, Kansas. He succeeds Louis Levine, whose term has expired.

Arthur F. Quern, of Alexandria, Virginia, Deputy Assistant to the President of the United States for Domestic Affairs, The White House, Washington, D. C. He succeeds Preston Carruthers, whose term has expired.

Peter F. Secchia, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, President, Universal Forest Products, Inc., Grand Rapids, Michigan. He succeeds Warren Means, whose term has expired.

Kenneth M. Smith, of Newark, Delaware, President and Chief Executive Officer, 70,001 Ltd. He succeeds Duane Lund, whose term has expired.

#