NO. 441

REMARKS OF
THE HONORABLE HENRY A. KISSINGER
SECRETARY OF STATE
UPON DEPARTURE FROM MOSCOW
OCTOBER 27, 1974

SECRETARY KISSINGER:

I want to say that the talks were very wide-ranging, covering all the issues in Soviet-American relations and in international affairs. I'm well satisfied with the outcome of the talks and I think good progress was made on the issues which we discussed.

Thank you.
