December 11, 1975

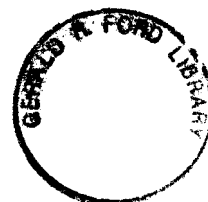

No. 602

ARRIVAL STATEMENT BY
THE HONORABLE HENRY A. KISSINGER
SECRETARY OF STATE
BRUSSELS, BELGIUM
DECEMBER 11, 1975

I simply want to say that I am delighted to be in Brussels for the meetings of the NATO Council; that in the affairs of the United States, the North Atlantic Alliance is the key element of our foreign policy; and that our close association with the industrialized democracies, especially with our friends in the North Atlantic area, is the key to whatever we may do in other parts of the world.

I look forward to very fruitful, very friendly and very constructive discussions. I want to thank you all for coming out at such a late hour.
