

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: President Nixon
Ambassador and Mrs. Philip W. Manhard
B. Gen. Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: March 28, 1974
12:05 - 12:12 p. m.

PLACE: The Oval Office

President: I haven't seen you since the POW party.

Manhard: Thank you very much for the party.

President: You were all great.

(Photographers came in, and left.)

Manhard: Here are some photos from Korea in 1953.

Mrs. Manhard: You look as good as you did in 1953.

President: You are a diplomat's wife!

Manhard: I will do my best to serve you, Mr. President.

President: I am not concerned about that. Anyone who has gone through what you have for his country, I know you will.

Manhard: Just want you to know it.

President: How old are you?

Manhard: 52.

President: Good luck in this assignment and all the ones that follow.

Pres/Arnt & Mrs. Monhard

28 Mar 1285-1212?

P Haven't seen you since POW

M Thanks for party

P you were all great ✓

M Photo opportunity

M Here are some photos from Kore
1953

M You look as good as 1953

P you are a diplomat's wife

M I would love to see your husband

P Don't worry about that

Any one who has gone thru what you have for his country ~~is~~

M Just want you to remember

P Always

M 52

P Good luck in this and following projects

