MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS:
President Gerald R. Ford
General William C. Westmoreland
Lt. General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: Thursday, March 13, 1975
12:40 p.m.

PLACE: The Oval Office
The White House

President: You look good. Have you lost some weight?

Westmoreland: A little. I am here for a doctor's checkup. My doctor says I can play golf and tennis eventually.

President: I played golf with Bob Hope the other day.

Westmoreland: I can do almost anything. I run on a treadmill for 20 minutes.

President: Have you had any previous problem?

Westmoreland: No. No heredity, blood pressure or anything. But it happened.

President: Have you moved into your new home?

Westmoreland: We move in this May. A man came in with an offer to rent I couldn't refuse.

President: I tried to get Bette to agree to buy a place at Hilton Head. I haven't convinced her.

Westmoreland: You should. It is a nice area. We would be glad to have you. Your brother is there, isn't he?
President: Yes. How far is it from Charleston?

Westmoreland: About 20 minutes.

President: How is the Kuwati problem coming?

Westmoreland: Okay, but the Jewish community is getting into the act.

President: Why?

Westmoreland: It is a matter of principle -- the Middle East conflict. I don't think they can sustain it.

President: Is it like Hilton Head?

Westmoreland: Smaller and more exclusive. It is adjacent to Seabrook Colony and similar.

President: We are having trouble getting Congress to act responsibly.

Westmoreland: Our most important commodity is our credibility. It is tragic; it's reminiscent of the days of the rise of Hitler in Germany. The North Vietnamese are the Prussians of Asia. Sihanouk is not the answer.

President: They are making him. Someone is in the center of the stage. They are trying to do something to avoid the blame.

Westmoreland: Hanoi is behind it and they understand only force. If we could mine Haiphong and bomb Hanoi, they would change right away.

President: Unfortunately, we can't.

Westmoreland: I feel deeply for you and wish I could help. We did get a Republican Governor elected.

President: I wish it had been the same party but a different man.

Westmoreland: He is a good man. I will support him. I won all the Districts but Charleston and lost that 10 to 1 because of the Council on Foreign Relations. There is a strong John Birch effort there. The newspapers did me a disservice -- they gave me a two-to-one lead, so people went to the polls thinking I didn't need their vote. So they voted in the Democratic primary -- you can't vote in both, but you can in either.
President: Did you think Edwards would win?

Westmoreland: I thought so when Ravenal was barred and wouldn’t support the Democrats. It was a mess and opened the doors for Edwards.

President: How does he get along with the legislation?

Westmoreland: He gets along with people. He knows nothing about budgets and management -- he is a dentist.

I will help him to the extent I can. The Atomic Energy Commission owns a lot of property at Savannah. I talked to Seamons about some projects on energy -- solar, atomic, etc.

The doctors are delighted with my condition.

President: Do you have a lot of exercise?

Westmoreland: I can do virtually anything but have to build up to it.

President: We had talked...

Westmoreland: I guess President Nixon was pretty well boxed in on that. Haig called me.

President: I couldn’t do anything -- it had gone so far. It has worked out pretty well.

I will keep my eyes and ears open for some part-time commission. There isn’t a PFIAB vacancy now, but one may come up.

Westmoreland: I understand there are not prescribed numbers.

President: True, but Anderson says if it gets too big it becomes unwieldy. But as we move ahead I will keep you in mind.

Westmoreland: Good. I have an intelligence background.

President: We are having a hassle on intelligence.

Westmoreland: Yes. Walters told me. It is a shame.
President: It didn't happen recently. Most of it happened between 1960 and 1970. The Senate Committee has asked for a whole shopping list of data. The House is not organized yet. Then there is the Rockefeller Commission. They are only on domestic stuff thus far. The violations in the domestic area are not so serious as the papers say. They must be looked into, but they don't appear too serious. We are waiting for the Rockefeller report.

Where do you stay?

Westmoreland: Walter Reed. Can I mention two things? As Chief of Staff I crystalballed in 1970 where we might be going. I foresaw this recession and I had a study made of a 1976 CCC. In a recession, young men are laid off first; they're roaming the streets, etc. I thought the Army could play a role in an updated CCC. Some of the officers and NCO's being riffed could establish mobile work camps. They could move around to improve the ecology. They would get modest pay. Those with previous educations would get part-time schooling.

President: Is that in the Department of Defense now?

Westmoreland: Yes. It is in file. Callaway probably doesn't know it but I will mention it.

President: Tell him to look at it and send it over.

Westmoreland: It may require updating but it is a sound study. I could play an advisor role if it is implemented. I found great confusion among people as to what they should do about the economy -- spend or save.

President: Economists have the same problem.

Westmoreland: If there was a more simple way to spell it out so the people would know what to do.

President: Last Fall, not one economist of all the ones we had in told us we would see a precipitant drop within three months. We now have inflation down to 7.2 percent but meanwhile unemployment has gone from 5.5 to 8.2 and probably will go higher. So in January we had to put the emphasis on recovery, but with concern that too much shift would start the inflation again. Also it is the unanimous judgment we had to do something in energy: to cut down consumption and stimulate development of alternative sources. The confusion of changing from inflation to recession and adding energy has led to this confused situation.

UNCLASSIFIED
Westmoreland: It is a difficult question to answer.

President: That's right. We are making headway on our energy plan. We started with 535 plans on the Hill; they are now down four or five. It is not very good, but we're getting better.

Westmoreland: I thought your energy plan was a very good one. It is a nice balance.

President: We worked hard on it. It is a good plan -- if we can get Congress to respond without tearing it up. Congress has some good ideas but not a comprehensive program. I hope we can come out with a good program. We are working well with Ullman especially, also with Wright and Pastore. The impact of the recession has put pressure on the oil price. But the Saudis have cut back production to take up the slack.

I was pleased at the progress on the Volunteer Army.

Westmoreland: The recession has helped that. They have made real progress.

President: The elimination of a 2-year enlistment will reduce the turnover.

Callaway has done a fine job -- and enjoys it. We asked him about a new job but he wasn't interested.

How are your children?

Westmoreland: My oldest is married, I have a boy in college and the youngest is in high school. The oldest one is out in the wilderness in Maine; they built a log cabin and a craft shop -- she is a pottery maker and he a cabinet maker. They are pioneers like your boy Jack.

President: Steve is the one -- he was accepted by Duke but wanted to be a ranch hand for a year. He looks after 500 calves. He promised to go back to school next year -- probably Utah State. Jack graduates from there this year and hopes to get into environmental consulting work. These two are dedicated to the West. Mike is in Divinity School. Susan will go to Mt. Vernon College. She is not academically inclined.

Westmoreland: Like my oldest.

MEETING WITH GENERAL WILLIAM C. WESTMORELAND, USA (Ret)
Thursday, March 13, 1975
12:45 p.m. (15 minutes)
The Oval Office

From: Henry A. Kissinger

I. PURPOSE

Informal courtesy call to allow General Westmoreland to pay his respects and discuss his opportunities for further government service.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS & PRESS ARRANGEMENTS

A. Background: General Westmoreland, former Commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam and Chief of Staff of the Army, retired from active duty and a distinguished career of more than 36 years in 1972. Since that time he has made his home in South Carolina where he was an unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor in 1974. Last fall the General suffered a heart attack while on a visit to California and was hospitalized for several weeks. It is believed, however, that he has ended his convalescence and has made a satisfactory recovery.

In recent weeks the General has indicated an interest in returning to public service in Washington in a position that would take advantage of his military background and expertise. He has mentioned service on your Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in this regard. George Shultz has been appointed to the vacancy left by John Connally. There are therefore no vacancies on the Board at this time unless you wish to enlarge the Board membership (list of members at Tab A). A vacancy could come up later and there are other boards and commissions which might profit from the General's service.
B. Participants: General Westmoreland and General Scowcroft.

C. Press Arrangements: Meeting to be announced; White House photographer only.

III. TALKING POINTS

1. It is good to see you looking so fit and to welcome you back to Washington. I hope that the pace in South Carolina has been less hectic than it was at the Pentagon.

2. [If the General's service on the PFIAB is raised] Your background and experience in intelligence would be extremely valuable to me on the PFIAB. It is unfortunate that the Board is full at this time. George Shultz succeeded Governor Connally last fall and there have been no vacancies since.

3. The country would benefit greatly from your return to public life and it would be a favor to me personally to be able to call on you in any number of ad hoc advisory roles. Would you be in a position to return to Washington permanently or even periodically?

4. I very much appreciate your coming in and I hope you will stay in touch in the months ahead. I will have Don Rumsfeld keep you posted on appropriate opportunities.

2. Played golf with Bob yesterday?

3. I can almost imagine you doing it again.

4. You know, I don't know what to say.

5. I am, the beautiful blond woman, everything, but

6. It happened.

7. How are you doing in your new

8. Do you think you can come in with an offer

9. I know you can't afford.

10. I hate to get married to agree to bring home

11. An arm and a leg.

12. You should. An arm and a leg.

13. Your brother is fine?

14. How far is it from Charleston.

15. About 20 mi.

16. Do you like it here?

17. Where are you going to school.

18. To point to begin

19. I am going to study.

20. I am going to study.

21. We won't go. We won't come.

22. Failing culture.

23. 1914.

24. I hate to bring up the idea.

25. How many people are in the German army.

26. How are you doing in your new

27. I am, the beautiful blond woman, everything, but with yours

W. Have both 20 50 understand only fine. If you could have Harding & Black Stone, they would always support your.

"Appreciably uncommon"

W. Still deeply for your support & could help.

Subject is August Chinese.

W. What had been some party, but by now

W. A padman. I want support him. I wanted a chicken but understand that 10-1 know of C.E. G. There is stg. John brook support them.

W. newspaper and see elsewhere. It's gone now.

I'll bet, so I felt not for you thing. I didn't send my note on the stock shares purchase.

you can't vote in both, but you can either.

W. Should friend, Edmans would be.

W. I threaten Betterman will support them. It was a times & quickly done for Edmund.

P. What legislature will begin?

W. A quite many of people. He knows nothing about budget - a charlatan.

I will help him to honest. He can only not fudge at Savannah. Talbot & Standard about some projects one happy - sales, atomic etc.

Don't think about conditions.

P. Do you have lot of finance?

W. I can do it technically & pretty, but don't until right it.

P. We had talked...

W. Figure 1. Wider book were pretty well before on that. Her writing me.
I couldn't do anything - it had gone as far. It has untold possibilities.
I will keep my memory open for some just time reason. There isn't a Prussian army very far down memory.
We understand there was the precedent to
P. Any, but Anthony says if it gets too big, it comes unnoticeable. But as we understand we will keep you in mind.
We can't. I have a seat in the garden.
P are being disposed until
W. Yes, Wallis. Mr. M.'s theme.
P didn't happen during the treat happening but 1900 or 20. Smith, Christie has voted for a whole Hippin' but fake. House not opened yet.
Then there is Rothe Creek. They only mentioned it as-Varieties in human decay not to suffer as parents say. They must be finished with, but they are open to rerun. Waiting for real help. When began May?
W. Wallis had. Can & mention it here.
As L.S. & explicit behind in "22. This was my very big play. I first on the weissman & Hawaii model. 1916 CCC. In reaching your main end. If it, running to front, it's not Amy.
could play a role in. In part, ccc, Carr of a speech & there's being unfulfilled and fact with more camps. They could get more exposure.
They would get wanted pay. I made four estimates and got post of coding.
So that in 2022.
W. Yes. It is a joke. Callaway just said "no",
so I'll call "no".
I'll drive to look at it, and it may seem.
W. I have my signature taking but, it a sound thing,
I could play on another note if it is complicated.
I found great disdain among people as to what they should, don't - long - spend a note.
I can write a 10 notes.
W. I have some sort of way to spell it out the whole world knows what to be.
I best call, it is a better call without in 6th and we would have pretty day when.
We saw them in Hot Springs. 7.2, but now it would amine inground looks gone from 5 to 6 and push energy. So in the sun, but it is not going on energy, but we want that the much they could find inflation again. Also of its maximum productive before, 7 wanting in energy, 7 out 2-3. it is still better. snows I'm confusing.
Gaining from inflation to reduction, we're reduction increased to the original but.
W. It is the question of names.

P. That might be our meaning looking in an energy plan. We started 1 8 5 in Hill day noon down to 4 5. Not very good but we feel it better.

W. Get the energy plan was a very good one. This balance test.

P. We worked hard on it. It's a good plan - fine.
I'm a great help. He's training 4 5. Very does good. I don't see a comprehension for it. I hope we can come out with a good say. We working well.
Your description is not clear. It appears to be a mixture of text and possibly a signature or stamp. If you could provide more context or clarify the content, I would be happy to help. If this is handwriting, the text seems to be a personal note or letter, possibly discussing a situation involving a college or university setting, mentioning a boy who is in college, and his work experience and family circumstances. It is difficult to interpret without clearer handwriting or context.
