Should it be felt necessary for U.S. personnel to report to their designated assembly areas, a coded message will be broadcast over American Radio Service. This message will consist of a temperature report for Saigon of "105 degrees and rising" followed by approximately the first 30 seconds of "I'm dreaming of a white Christmas". This message will be broadcast every 15 minutes for approximately two hours.

If you hear the above message, report, with travel documentation, to your nearest assembly point. Stay tuned to American Radio Station FM 99.9 (primary) or FM 90.1 (secondary) for further announcements.
