President Gerald R. Ford
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

I want you to know how very much I admire and respect you and your entire family for all the work you have done for the American people. With your integrity, your sincerity, your dedication and your great courage in times that have been difficult for our country, you have served the people well. I think you have been an outstanding president and you can be very proud of your record of accomplishment.

If you are ever in Kansas, remember that the Governor and I would always be proud to extend our hospitality to you and your family.

I extend my very warmest best wishes to you and Betty for success and happiness in your future endeavors.

Very sincerely,
