Dear Jim

My dear Mr. President:

I personally want to convey my thanks to you for the outstanding service you have given to our country over the years. Your accomplishments since becoming President in August, 1974, have been phenomenal. As you stated so eloquently in the campaign - your Administration produced peace, prosperity and trust. For these we shall always be grateful.

Wishing you and your family the best, I remain,

Very truly yours,

JFB/gk
