THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

November 5, 1976

ML

President Gerald R. Ford
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Jerry:

To say we are tremendously proud of you, Betty,
and your entire family is putting it mildly.

You restored faith in our government, friendliness with dignity in the White House and strong leadership at home and abroad.

Perhaps equally important, you accepted defeat with the grace of the real Champ that you are. This has given all of us who worked so hard for you a much needed lift in our spirits.

To us, your close friends, and to the many millions of Americans who voted for you, you will always be
Mr. President.

With warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

Alfred B. Connable
