The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

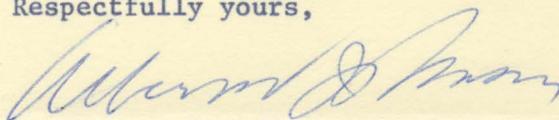

As I prepare to leave the Nation's Capital by reason of my recent defeat, I look back at the 13 years of being in Congress and working with you with a great deal of honor and satisfaction.

I am sorry we both had to lose and I know in your case the Country is the definite loser.

I enjoyed being associated with you, handling the Consent Calendar for you and in many other ways. I know we will both enjoy our retirement and look back upon our years in Congress where we fought a good fight.

With best personal regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

ALBERT W. JOHNSON
