BIOGRAPHIC SKETCH

Ambassador William S. Mailliard

On March 5, 1974, William Somers Mailliard was sworn in as the Permanent Representative of the United States of America to the Organization of American States with the rank of Ambassador.

Since 1952 and until his appointment, Ambassador Mailliard served as a Member of Congress from California. At the time of his appointment, Ambassador Mailliard was the ranking minority member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and the senior Republican on the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. He was also Vice Chairman of the California Congressional Delegation. Ambassador Mailliard served concurrently as Congressional Advisor to the United Nations Committee on the Peaceful Uses of the Seabed and Ocean Floor Beyond the Limits of National Jurisdiction and as a member of the Commission on the Organization of the Government for the Conduct of Foreign Policy.

He has participated in numerous regional and international conferences including: the Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Meetings of Consultations of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of American States in 1964, 1965, and 1967; the Anglo-American Parliamentary Conferences on Africa, 1965-69; the British-American Inter-Parliamentary Conference, 1968-70; the U.S.-Japan Parliamentary Exchange Conference, 1968-69; the Fourth General Session of the Latin American Parliamentary Meeting, 1969; the Consultative Assembly of the Council of Europe, 1970; and the Tlatelolco Conference of Foreign Ministers, 1974. Ambassador Mailliard also was a member of the U.S. Delegation to the Eighteenth Session of the United Nations General Assembly, 1963; the Inauguration of Guatemalan President Mendez Montenegro, 1966; and the Inauguration of Mexican President Echeverria, 1970.

Ambassador Mailliard was born on June 10, 1917, in Belvedere, California. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Yale University in 1939. During 1939-40 he was Assistant Naval Attache, American Embassy, London, and during World War II he was with the Bureau of Naval Personnel, the Naval War College, and with the Seventh Amphibious Force as Aide and Flag Lieutenant to Vice Admiral D.E. Barbey. For his service he was awarded the Silver Star, Legion of Merit, and Bronze Star. He currently holds the rank of Rear Admiral in the United States Naval Reserve. In 1947 Ambassador Mailliard was Assistant Director of the California Youth Authority and from 1949 to 1951 he served as secretary to Governor Earl Warren of California. From 1951 to 1952 he was Assistant to the Director of the California Academy of Sciences.

Special honors accorded Ambassador Mailliard have included: the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce "California's Outstanding Young Man" Award, 1952; the San Francisco Chronicle Gold Medal of Achievement, 1961; the Biennial Distinguished Service Award of Americans for Constitutional Action, 1961 and 1963; the California Congressional Recognition Plan Commendation, 1963; and the Propellor Club Brass Hat Award, 1968.

Ambassador Mailliard is married to the former Millicent Fox. He has seven children.
