THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: President Nixon
Dr. Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa, Ambassador of Nicaragua and Dean of the Diplomatic Corps
Major General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: Tuesday, July 30, 1973
12:15 p. m.

PLACE: The Oval Office

The President: So it was 30 years ago you first came here.

Sacasa: Yes, it was a Monday, right in this room.

I convey to you the respects of my government.

[The President presented a gift and letter, and photos were taken.]

I remember in 1943, I arrived in July. It was a great, successful year. It was the year of Casablanca, Cairo, Teheran, Stalin, Roosevelt met.

The President: When you mention those people, you make me feel old.

I am a friend of your country -- and of you.
