

IN HONOR OF
THEIR MAJESTIES
THE KING AND QUEEN OF SPAIN

THE WHITE HOUSE
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1976

In a relatively short period of time, the youthful New Jersey-born and American-trained violinist Gil Morgenstern has become one of the country's most exciting classical talents.

Mr. Morgenstern has been surrounded by music as far back as he can remember, having been raised in a family whose members were accomplished musicians, and having begun his formal study of the violin at the age of five. He is a graduate of the Juilliard School and continues to study with the famed pedagogue Ivan Galamian.

Debuting at an early age, Mr. Morgenstern performed at New York's Carnegie Recital Hall, and at Town and Cami Halls. Since these initial performances, Mr. Morgenstern has given numerous recitals throughout the United States and has recently made a most successful Canadian debut in Ottawa. Moreover, he has been eagerly engaged as a guest soloist by the National Symphony, the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, the Santa Barbara Symphony, and the Garden State Philharmonic. In addition to his concert schedule, Mr. Morgenstern is frequently heard over New York's classical music radio stations.

Gil Morgenstern is the recipient of many prestigious awards and honors. He was the first prize winner for three of the country's most demanding competitions: the Washington International, the National Society of Arts and Letters, and the Music Educators Association.
