Christian Ruth Wins 2019
Gerald R. Ford Scholar Award in Honor of Robert M. Teeter

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library is proud to announce that Christian Ruth has been chosen as the 2019 winner of the Gerald R. Ford Scholar Award in Honor of Robert M. Teeter. Mr. Ruth, a doctoral student in History at University of Albany- SUNY, is completing his dissertation, The Bitter World: Famine, Foreign Aid, and Development in the Cold War. This dissertation explores how the idea of basic human needs is addressed throughout the 1970s with the “New Directions” program, and how this concept developed through and influenced US policy.

This annual award of $5,000 is given to a doctoral student conducting dissertation research and writing on an aspect of the United States political process during the latter part of the 20th century. It was established in 2005 to honor the life and work of Robert Teeter. Mr. Teeter spent over thirty years as a leader in public opinion analysis and campaign strategy, including the 1976 campaign of President Gerald R. Ford. The majority of written materials from Mr. Teeter’s career are part of the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library collection. This award has been made possible by the generous support of the Teeter family and friends, and his colleagues on the United Parcel Service Board of Directors.

The application deadline for next year’s award is March 31, 2020.
