Summary Description

The Philip W. Buchen Papers audiovisual series consists of photographs and contact sheets relating to Buchen's personal life and work as counsel to President Gerald R. Ford. Most were taken during the Ford administration, but a small amount both pre- and post-date Ford's presidency. Many of the photos are assumed to be labeled by Philip Buchen's wife, Beatrice "Bunny" Buchen.

Many of the photographs depict Philip Buchen at work, with the Office of Counsel staff, and in various meetings with President Ford and others. Others show him and his wife at social functions, such as state dinners and a Zodiac dinner party they hosted at the Chevy Chase Country Club. Also included are photographs of the Buchens' trips to Kathmandu, Nepal, and to the Roosevelt Warm Springs Institute For Rehabilitation in Warm Springs, Georgia.

Photographs that are related or grouped together have general descriptive information preceding their individual listings. For descriptive purposes, the names of Gerald R. Ford and Betty Ford have been abbreviated to "GRF" and "EBF," respectively.
