1	1	AV85-2-1 to 2 Primary Campaign Interview Rehearsal Tapes [Files of Richard Cheney]
	2	AV86-12-1 Exhibit P1 - At about 4:40 p.m. on Thursday, January 9, a group of Panamanian students entered the Canal zone carrying flags, signs and the Student Federation Banner.
		AV86-12-2 Exhibit P2 - At the Governor's Residence they paused and sang the national anthem of Panama.
		AV86-12-3 Exhibit P3 - In descending the long flight of steps, the students passed between twin flag poles in front of the Administration Building, which were flying the flags of both Panama and the United States.
		AV86-12-4 Exhibit P4 - Captain Gaddis Wall, district police commander of Balboa, talked with members of the group where it had been halted by the police.
		AV86-12-5 Exhibit P5 - Six Panamanian student representatives were selected to march to the Balboa High School flag pole. (note tear in flag at upper right-hand corner of red field.)
		AV86-12-6 Exhibit P6 - The Panamanian delegation left the main group and were escorted by the police to the scullion.
		AV86-12-7 Exhibit P7 - Four of the delegation carries the flag, holding it by its top edge in front of them. (Note the tear is evident in this photograph)
		AV86-12-8 Exhibit P8 - The Panamanian students stated harshly that if they could not hoist their flag, they would not continue the ceremony.
		AV86-12-9 Exhibit P9 - The Panamanian delegation refused to leave the area when the ceremony was canceled.
		AV86-12-10 Exhibit P10 - The delegation was moved out of the area by police officers.
		AV86-12-11 Exhibit P11 - An American girl was pushed backward into the hedge surrounding the flagpole.
		AV86-12-12 Exhibit P12 - An American boy struck at the Panamanian whom he believed pushed the girl into the hedge. The photograph of this instance was published in The Panama American , with the caption alleging that the boy was tearing at the Panama flag.
		AV86-12-13 Exhibit P13 - In the course of being nudged back from the flagpole, two of the four Panamanian flag bearers stumbled but held too tightly to the flag, which appeared to give under the stress and parted along its seams.
		AV86-12-14 Exhibit P14 - When the two students got back to their feet, still holding the flag, it was noticed that the flag was ripped from the top down the middle almost down to the coat of arms emblem.
	2	AV86-12-15 Exhibit P15 - Photograph taken January 10, showing cyclone fence lying on the slope in front of the District Judge's house. The fence was cut by rioters January 9th.
	3	AV86-12-16 Exhibit P17 - Photograph shows an automobile being burned on Fourth of July Avenue in the area of the District Judge's residence.
		AV86-12-17 Exhibit P18 - Photograph taken January 10, showing the remains of burned automobiles set afire on previous night in the area of the District Judge's home.
