

SICHAN SIV

A Survivor's Journey from Cambodia's Killing Fields to U.S. Diplomat

MONDAY, MARCH 29, 2010 7:30 p.m.

When Vietnam and Cambodia fell 35 years ago this spring, speaker Sichan Siv endured the Khmer Rouge slave labor camps, escaped, resettled as a refugee, and later became an ambassador to the U.N.

Siv's 2008 memoir, Golden Bones, is "gripping...always compelling"

Join us for this profoundly inspirational program as Ambassador Siv tells of his amazing journey from certain death half-way around the world in Cambodia, to the corridors of power in Washington, D.C.
