

Last Men Out:
The True Story of America's Heroic Final Hours in Vietnam

Thursday, May 12, 2011 7:30 p.m.

Join us as renowned author, Tom Clavin, talks about his newly-released book, Last Men Out, a pulse-pounding account of the day in 1975 when a small band of U.S. Marines and a vast fleet of helicopter pilots executed a large-scale evacuation from Saigon as North Vietnamese forces surged toward the city.

Based on a wealth of recently declassified documents and in-depth, firsthand accounts, Clavin presents this tale of heroism where these eleven men, who were the last to be flown off the U.S. Embassy roof, were rescued from certain death just moments before capture.
