

Don't miss this opportunity to watch a video that highlights the mostly unheralded sides of Willis Ward and Gerald Ford as it applauds friendship, morality and individual courage.

Tuesday May 22, 2012 7:00 p.m.

Black and Blue

A True Story Documentary Film
with Commentary by Producer, Brian Kruger

When Georgia Tech came to Michigan in 1934, the Wolverines were forced to bench their best player, Willis Ward, because he was an African-American. The incident infuriated Ward's best friend on the team, Gerald Ford. This is the story of two schools, two friends and a game that changed everything.

Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library
1000 Beal Avenue
Ann Arbor, MI
(734) 205-0555
www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov

Support provided by the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Foundation.
www.geraldrfordfoundation.org

Open Seating;
Free Admission