Creating a Culture of Excellence

Captain John Meier

Commanding Officer, USS Gerald R. Ford (CVN 78)

Join us as Captain John F. Meier, Commanding Officer of the Pre-Commissioned Gerald R. Ford (CVN 78), speaks about building the crew to man the Navy's newest and most technologically advanced aircraft carrier and setting the standard to last the 50-year life of the ship.

Redesigned from keel to mast, the carrier will be able to launch aircraft more quickly while costing less to maintain, saving the Navy a projected $4 billion over the ship's life span.

Free Parking. Free Admission.
Reception follows program.
