Scope and Content Note

The collection includes multiple copies of the student yearbooks, The Pioneer, dating from 1927 to 1931, when Gerald R. Ford, Jr. was a student at the school (the building contained both a middle school and a high school so he was there for six years). He appears in each of the yearbooks.

Also included are many scattered issues of the student literary magazine, also entitled The Pioneer, dated 1929 to 1931. This publication provided a forum for students' short stories and also news articles relating to school activities and sports events. Ford's name appears several times in these magazines.
