Dear Senator Abourezk:

Thank you for your June 27 letter to the President in regard to the serious situation on the Pine Ridge Reservation. I am aware of your meeting with Attorney General Levi and Secretary Hathaway and have been kept apprised of the discussions on your proposal that the U.S. Marshal be placed in charge of criminal law enforcement activities and crime prevention programs on the Reservation.

The President and I share your concern about the need to restore both order and long-term peace to Pine Ridge and will continue to follow the situation closely.

Sincerely,

Philip W. Buchen

Dear Mr. President:

I have been attempting to talk to you directly today, but I have been unable to do so. In lieu of a personal message to you concerning the tragic situation on the Pine Ridge Reservation, I am writing this letter to make some recommendations which I think must be carried out in an effort to restore some kind of order to Pine Ridge.

On numerous occasions prior to yesterday's tragic events, I have urged upon the Bureau of Indian Affairs that a different policy be carried out on the reservation designed to end the anarchy which has existed there during the past two-and one-half years. I have received only a bureaucratic response, but no action. Therefore, the only avenue remaining is direct action on your part to order the necessary basic changes which need to be made.

Accordingly, I offer the following recommendations with respect to the Pine Ridge Reservation:

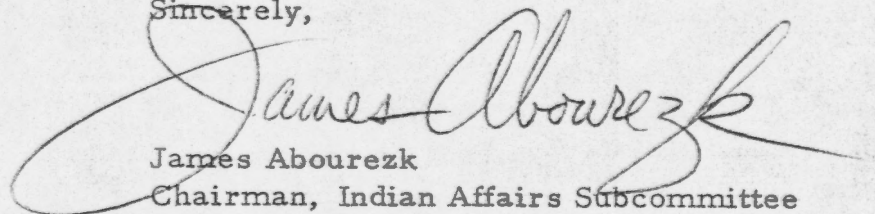

1. that the Bureau of Indian Affairs law enforcement authority be transferred to professional law enforcement personnel either in the Bureau of Indian Affairs or in the Justice Department and removed from political control under which it now acts on the reservation.
2. removal of all outside people from the Pine Ridge Reservation.
3. appointment by you of a special investigative team, comprised of Indian people not affiliated with the government or with either faction on the reservation. This team would make a determination of responsibility for the decline of order and should recommend changes which are needed in the tribal structure so that the interests of rank and file Indians on the Pine Ridge Reservation are attended to.

An endemic level of violence has been maintained on the reservation ~~ever~~ since the Wounded Knee occupation in 1973, and I cannot foresee any end to the conditions of violence unless some immediate changes are made.

Sincerely,

Dear President Ford:

I am enclosing a copy of an exclusive interview held by this newspaper and Senator James Abourezk, published July 2nd.

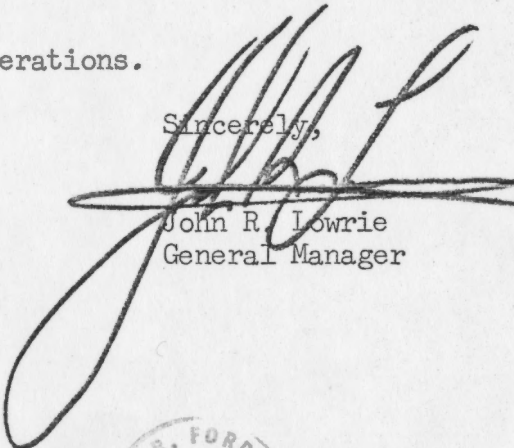

The interview outlines the content of a letter, hand delivered to your office by a representative in Senator Abourezk's office regarding his request for assistance at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation here in South Dakota.

We would appreciate your comments and your intentions regarding this critical and unfortunate situation on one of our Indian reservations.

If you care to comment publicly, we would appreciate greatly publicizing your opinions, suggestions and intentions or if you would wish to comment to us personally, we, of course, will preserve your confidentiality.

Thank you for the above considerations.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

JIM CONNOR

FROM:

BOBBIE GREENE KILBERG

Bobbie

In response to your November 5 memo to Phil Buchen on unanswered Congressional correspondence, I am providing a status report on a letter from Congressman James Abdnor to the President.

Attached at Tab A is a copy of Vern Loen's letter to Congressman Abdnor concerning an inquiry by the Congressman about a memorandum to the President from Robert Burnette, President of the Sioux Tribe. (Burnette memo also attached.) The Counsel's Office did not receive a copy of the Burnette memo until Vern sent it to us with his October 4 reply to the Congressman. Upon receiving Vern's letter, I attempted to contact Bob Burnette, who was a friend of mine. No one answered in the Tribal Office on a number of occasions, and through other contacts I discovered that the reason related to a very active and bitter election campaign that was being conducted for the Tribal Presidency. The result of that election was that Bob Burnette lost the Presidency of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe by 40 votes. Burnette then attempted to fire the Tribal Judge who certified the election and swore in the victor and, when that move failed, filed suit in Federal district court to invalidate the swearing-in and to order a new election. Burnette also called Ted Marrs to try to persuade him to have the White House intervene in the election dispute. Ted declined to do so.

Given the above circumstances, I did not think it was appropriate to continue to try to contact Bob Burnette. Ted Marrs had received the original of the Burnette memo to the President and had sent it to the FBI for further comment and response. He has not received a response to date. The Justice Department, one of the addressees of the Burnette memo, has been looking into the alleged harassment as well as into a number of other alleged incidents on the neighboring Pine Ridge Reservation. There is at present no substantive reply to Burnette and, therefore, no copy to Congressman Abdnor. Until there is such a reply, I did not think it was necessary to correspond with the Congressman. However, I would be happy to verbally convey this information to Congressman Abdnor and will do so on Monday unless I hear from you to the contrary.

Though the Abdnor letter is the only one from your list which I personally have as outstanding, let me also note that the Counsel's Office has not sent a further White House response to a letter from Congresswoman Holt to the President dated September 29. Vern Loen answered the Congresswoman on October 6 (see Tab B for Holt letter and Loen response), and it was my opinion, shared by Dick Parsons and David Lissy of the Domestic Council, that Vern's letter was both sufficient and as responsive as the White House could be. There was no further response we could give the Congresswoman to her attack on HEW, the Federal courts and Justice that (1) would please her; and (2) would not run the danger of being misinterpreted by various groups.

MEMORANDUM

TO: HONORABLE GERALD FORD, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
ATTORNEY GENERAL LEVY
SENATOR JAMES ABOUREZK
SENATOR GEORGE MCGOVERN
CONGRESSMAN LARRY PRESSLER
CONGRESSMAN JAMES ABDNOR

FROM: ROBERT BURNETTE, PRESIDENT, ROSEBUD SIOUX TRIBE

SUBJECT: F.B.I. HARRASSMENT ON THE ROSEBUD RESERVATION

Please, excuse this manner of communication, but it is vital and necessary that the occurances cease immediately, so I am taking this means of advising you.

We know that two F.B.I. agents were killed on the Pine Ridge Reservation and that the F.B.I. is seeking revenge for those deaths in and amongst Indian people.

We can, readily, avail ourselves to searches such as went on at the Crow Dog and Al Running residences a few days ago and the researching of Al Running's house and premises last Thursday, but when 20 or 30 of your agents raid Charlie Little Dog or Broken Leg's home and scare them to death for no reason whatsoever, we must call a halt to this type of harrassment. Mr. and Mrs. Little Dog have been married for 64 years - longer than most people live - and they have no reputation whatsoever of being affiliated with outside Indian groups, but through the stupidity of the F.B.I. or whoever is in charge of them, they raided this couple's home for no reason.

I demand a full apology from the United States of America and should this occur again and any of our older people be harrassed by personnel looking like they belong in the jungle ready for battle and armed with machine guns, automatic weapons and helicopters, I shall have to take steps to stop such proceedings. If you want the cooperation of duly elected officials of this Tribe, I suggest that your people use proper channels because I will not stand idly by while our older people are forced to look down the barrel of automatic weapons while their homes are search and seized.
