MIDWESTERN GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE

The Midwestern Governors' Conference is an autonomous group, with its own Articles of Organization, which has designated the Council of State Governments to serve as the secretariat. In addition to the Chairman and Vice Chairman there are the Advisory Committee which advises the Chairman on the Annual Meeting and interim work, and currently three substantive Task Forces: Energy and Environment, Intergovernmental Relations, and Agricultural Resource Utilization.

COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

The Council of State Governments is a joint agency of all the state governments - created, supported and directed by them. It conducts research on state programs and problems, maintains an information service available to all three branches, issues a variety of publications, assists inter-governmental cooperation and provides staff for affiliated organizations. Headquarters in Lexington, Kentucky consists of Research, Publications and State Services as well as administrative services. There are four regional offices - New York, Atlanta, San Francisco and Chicago - and a Washington Office.

The map contains a dense network of street names, including major thoroughfares like Washington, Central, and Michigan, as well as numerous residential streets. Key locations such as Wabash Park, Brookside Park, and the U.S. Naval Avionics Facility are clearly marked. The map also shows various landmarks like the Memorial Cemetery and the Washington Square Shopping Center. The red line and numbers represent a specific house numbering system overlaid on the existing street grid.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 15, 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR:

JIM CANNON

FROM:

STEVE McCONAHEY JSM

SUBJECT:

Midwestern Governors Conference

Attached is an agenda for the Midwestern Governors' Conference and a list of Governors who plan to attend.

If you are unable to attend the entire Conference, I recommend that you attend the Tuesday and Wednesday sessions. Tuesday will allow you to focus in on midwestern issues, as well as attend the State Dinner that evening, and Wednesday will allow you to attend the session on the "Future of Federal State Relations" which Frank Zarb is scheduled to speak on.

I will be arriving in Indianapolis from Milwaukee late Sunday night, and do plan to attend the entire Conference.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mr. Cannon:

Ray Hanzlik is arranging to have a car pick you up when you arrive in Indianapolis and also a room for that night.

He will contact Steve and let him know of your plans; so Steve will contact you when you arrive.

k

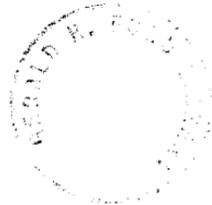

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mr. Cannon:

A WH car will pick you up at home on Sunday at 6:00 to take you to National Airport.

On Monday night at 9:22 you will be met by WH car at National Airport.
