Personal GRF

Dear Norm:

You were so nice to Susan and the clan at the Sunday services. It was a great thrill for her. Thanks so much for your kindness.

I'm writing this an hour or so before the game this Sunday so I can't offer you congratulations or condolences. I do intend to watch it on T.V. in the White House as I do a little catching up on a backlog of work.

Everything looks so much brighter with Betty's operation a success. She has been helped tremendously by the prayers and best wishes of so many all over the world.

I do hope you and the Dolphins have a great year. I like the personal and team attitude I detect and hear about. This is what makes the difference whether it is on the gridiron, in the Congress, or the White House.

Please give my very best to Don Shula and the team.

Warmest best wishes to you and your family.

Sincerely,

Mr. Norm Evans
