White House aides are attempting to recruit businessmen for key positions in two Cabinet departments—Health, Education and Welfare and Housing and Urban Development, so far with discouraging results. One prospect said he wasn't interested because both departments are too "nightmarish."

CHAMBERS OF JUSTICE TOM C. CLARK

5/11/75

Dear Mr President :-

The attached clipping from US news and World Report says that you are looking for "businessmen" for key positions in some of the Departments. My son-in-law - Thos. R. Gronlund - is anxious to serve in government. He is a graduate of the Naval Academy and has served TEXAS INSTRUMENTS, E.F. Hutton Co and Carborundum in important positions.

He may be contacted in Buffalo,

N.Y. at 122 Wellingwood Dr. Zip 14051 or telephone 716-688-5948. He does not know that I am writing you but I do know that he is available.

I hope that you can lure some young business men into government. We need them there badly.

With every good wish,

Your friend,

Samuel
