Charlene von Pawel -

I understand from Bill Brockett that you are handling letters concerning Liberty's family. This is forwarded to you for appropriate handling.

For your information a copy of this letter was sent to Nancy Chirdon for Mrs. Ford's review -- at the President's request.

Trudy Fry

Jim -

I am checking to see who is handling the letters about Liberty

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

Oregon Republican State Central Committee

Dave Green, Chairman

September 8, 1975

RC 9

Dear Mr. President:

I personally thank you on behalf of our Oregon Republican Party for your visit this last Thursday. Your visit was most rewarding to our State Party.

I particularly appreciate your offering us the opportunity to name "the pick of the litter."

The Oregon Republican State Central Committee meeting in Salem, Oregon, September 6, has suggested "Oregon Rogue." Your future family member was sired in the beautiful "Valley of the Rogue River" and certainly we trust that "Liberty" and "Rogue" will provide many pleasant moments for the Ford family.

Sincerely,

Dave Green
Chairman
