I. PURPOSE

To informally meet with over 200 volunteers and the entire paid staff (100) of the President Ford Committee and to thank them for their efforts in your campaign.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS, PRESS PLAN

A. Background: The President Ford Committee relies heavily on volunteer help for all phases of the campaign effort. This reception is being held to recognize their efforts and long hours of volunteer assistance. In addition, a majority of the paid staffers at the PFC have never been to the White House. This reception was arranged following agreement by Rog Morton and Mrs. Ford that an expression of appreciation to the PFC volunteers would be appropriate and an excellent morale builder.

B. Participants: 200+ PFC volunteers, 100 paid staff of the PFC, 27 staff from the Republican National Committee, 50 members of the White House staff. List of attendees attached at Tab A.

C. Press Plan: Meeting will be announced; press pool only. David Kennerly photos.

III. TALKING POINTS

1. Betty and I are delighted to have you here with us this afternoon.
2. Volunteers are the backbone of any successful campaign effort.

3. This gathering is but a small token of our appreciation for the vast amount of hours you have given to our campaign effort.
4. We have the momentum but the name of the game now is delegates, and following our early victories and Tuesday night's results in Wisconsin and New York, we are in a commanding position. Pennsylvania is next and there are 103 delegates there which, for the most part, are uncontested.
5. Texas is crucial. People are calling it another New Hampshire because it is the first in the set of 20 some primaries which follow so quickly after May first. The momentum established by a victory in Texas can carry us right through California. We were behind in New Hampshire but with great effort and a good organization, we won. I believe Texas will prove that history repeats itself.
6. With all of you continuing to work on my behalf, I have no doubt that we will win in Texas, in Kansas City and in November.

NOTE: Mrs. Ford may wish to make a few remarks.
