Purpose

Provides for the reappointment of citizen regents to the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution for terms of six years.

Agency Recommendations

Office of Management and Budget	Approval
Smithsonian Institution	Approval

Discussion

Existing law (20 USC 42) provides that the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution be composed of the Vice President, the Chief Justice of the United States, three members of the Senate, three members of the House of Representatives, and nine other persons, other than Members of Congress. The nine citizen regents are to be appointed by joint resolution of Congress for six-year terms.

Pursuant to that law, the Board of Regents voted unanimously to request Congressional members of the Board to introduce legislation to provide for the reappointment of Mr. Thomas J. Watson, Jr. and Dr. John Nicholas Brown.

These enrolled resolutions carry out the recommendations of the Board of Regents. The biographies of the two citizen regents concerned are included in the Committee reports.

Dear Mr. Frey:

Thank you for referring to the Smithsonian Institution for comment S. J. Res. 41 providing for the reappointment of Thomas J. Watson, Jr., as citizen regent of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution.

The manner of appointment and terms of office of regents of the class other than Members of Congress are set forth in 20 U. S. C. 43. At its meeting on January 24, 1975, the Board of Regents voted unanimously to request Congressional members of the Board to introduce legislation to provide for the reappointment of Mr. Watson, whose current term expired on June 17, 1975, for the statutory term of six years.

Mr. Watson is a resident of Connecticut. He was initially appointed to the Board of Regents on June 17, 1969, and has served the Institution with distinction. A biography of Mr. Watson is enclosed.

The resolution would entail no costs to the Government.

We respectfully recommend approval by the President of S. J. Res. 41.

Sincerely yours,

S. Dillon Ripley

REPORT
No. 94-122

PROVIDING FOR THE REAPPOINTMENT OF THOMAS J. WATSON, JR., AS CITIZEN REGENT OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

MAY 13 (legislative day, APRIL 21), 1975.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. CANNON, from the Committee on Rules and Administration, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S.J. Res. 41]

The Committee on Rules and Administration, to which was referred the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 41) to provide for the reappointment of Thomas J. Watson, Jr., as citizen regent of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the joint resolution do pass.

Senate Joint Resolution 41 would provide that the vacancy in the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian, of the class other than Members of Congress, which will occur by the expiration of the term of Thomas J. Watson, Jr., of Connecticut, on June 17, 1975, be filled by the reappointment of the present incumbent for the statutory term of 6 years.

The Board of Regents, pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 42, is composed of the Vice President, the Chief Justice of the United States, three Members of the Senate, three Members of the House of Representatives, and nine other persons, other than Members of Congress. The nine citizen regents, two of whom shall be residents of the District of Columbia and seven of whom shall be inhabitants of some State (but no two of the same State), are appointed by joint resolution of Congress and serve 6-year terms.

A letter in support of Senate Joint Resolution 41 addressed to Senator Howard W. Cannon, chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration, by S. Dillon Ripley, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, enclosing a biography of Mr. Watson, is as follows:

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION,
Washington, D.C., April 11, 1975.

HON. HOWARD W. CANNON,
Chairman, Committee on Rules and Administration,
U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: I would like to take this opportunity to comment on Senate Joint Resolution 41 to provide for the reappointment of Mr. Thomas J. Watson, Jr., as citizen regent of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution.

The manner of appointment and terms of office of regents of the class other than Members of Congress are set forth in 20 U.S.C. 43. At its meeting on January 24, 1975, the Board of Regents voted unanimously to request Congressional members of the Board to introduce legislation to provide for the reappointment of Mr. Watson, whose current term expires on June 17, 1975, for the statutory term of six years.

Mr. Watson is a resident of Connecticut. He was initially appointed to the Board of Regents on June 17, 1969, and has served the Institution with distinction.

A biography of Mr. Watson is enclosed, and I shall, of course, be happy to furnish any additional information you may require.

Sincerely yours,

S. DILLON RIPLEY,
Secretary.
